The Delaware Leadership In Service Program

What is the program?

You Provide Meaningful Work
&
Supervision

The Delaware Leadership In Service Program (DLISP) was developed by the State Office of Volunteerism in conjunction with the Governor's commission on Community and Volunteer Service. DLISP strives to serve low income Delaware youth between the ages of 14-18 by providing an enriching and constructive summer work experience, education and service work opportunities.

Why participate?

Helping young adults get job experience is not only good for the youth but it is also good for your organization/ business & the community.

PLUS, you can hire
extra summer help
that is paid for by DLISP

Basic Information:

Facebook.com/DLISP

DLISP is an 8 week program that will run from June 20, 2014- August 15, 2014. Youth will 'work' 24 hours a week with their designated employers (your organization) and 'serve' 6 hours a week at community service sites. Youth get paid the minimum wage of $7.25/hour. The program will be in all New Castle, Kent and Sussex County.
